Epilepsy Youth in Europe: Bringing The Senses Together

17th September 2003

FOR IMMEDIATE PRESS RELEASE

The Youth Section of the Caritas Malta Epilepsy Association has just hosted an EU Youth Exchange Project in Malta. This project, called The EYiE of Horus, was co-funded by YOUTH Programme DG-Education and Culture, European Commission, and it helped to create an international forum of 36 youths with epilepsy from 10 countries. It was carried out in collaboration with the EYiE (Epilepsy Youth in Europe), IBE (International Bureau for Epilepsy) and the Department of Clinical Pharmacology and Therapeutics at the University of Malta. Its aims were to explore what it is like to be a youth with epilepsy in Europe, what it means to European society at large and how to tackle the multicultural social exclusion these youths often experience.

The participants took part in several interactive workshops as well as cultural activities around various historical sites in Malta. It also included a visit to his Excellency, The President of the Republic, Professor Guido de Marco at the Palace in Valletta, where the aims of the exchange were explained to him by Dr John Chaplin, co-ordinator EYiE project and the local organiser Dr Janet Mifsud.

At the end of the week the participants expressed their satisfaction that the project activities such as role play, dealing with the media, lectures by various NGOs in Malta, personal presentation of epilepsy and experiential activities assisted them in developing their character, expanding their knowledge about the condition and about the situation in various EU countries.

This organisers would like to thank HE the President of the Republic of Malta, Ministry of Education, Ministry of Youth, Arts and Sports, Ministry of Gozo, Heritage Malta, Caritas Malta, Galaxy Hotel Malta, University of Malta, Go Mobile, HSBC Save the Children Fund, Malta Tourism Authority, St John's co-Cathedral Foundation, Consolidated Biscuits, General Soft Drinks Malta Ltd, Rokna Pizzeria, Veduta Pizzeria, Mdina Glass, Jolico Ltd Malta, Collis Williams Ltd, Gozo Channel Ltd, and Marsovin Ltd, Eden Foundation and KNPD for their support.
